Tom Johnston, one of Canada's all-round motorsport personalities, is author of the new book, SPORTS CAR ROAD RACING IN WESTERN CANADA.

Over a 35 year period he drove, designed, built and entered race cars more than 300 events across North America. His book reaches back to the first road race in Canadian history, at Winnipeg in 1904, through the Westwood era, and forward to the Vancouver Molson Indy one hundred years later.
