

The Dragons of Kangaroo Island

More Adventures of an Undersea Creature

Written and Illustrated by Jacqueline Vickery Stanley

Lucille, the Weedy Sea Dragon, does not like her body; she wants to look like her cousin, the Leafy Sea Dragon. She thinks she will be popular if she looks like him. One night, in the waters off Kangaroo Island, Lucille survives a great ordeal, discovers she is special and begins to like herself just the way she is.

PUBLICITY

- National Children's Book Week presentations
- SeaSpace Inc. Annual National Conference in Texas

THE AUTHOR

A passionate diver, underwater photographer, writer, illustrator, speaker and supporter of several marine societies, Jacqui gives frequent presentations and seminars at conferences and schools throughout Canada and the USA. She has a BA from the University of Western Australia and an MLA from the University of St. Thomas in Houston, Texas. Jacqui is working on a degree in Early Childhood Education.

PREVIOUS PUBLICATIONS

The Effects of the Underwater Environment on Memory and Perception
Wolfie the Wolf-eel: The Adventures of an Undersea Creature

CHILDREN'S FICTION / MARINE BIOLOGY

Hard Cover / 8.5" x 11" / 40 pages

Juvenile (5-10) / Colour illustrations throughout Tangara Publishing

ISBN 1-8766-77-58-9 / $15.95 US / $21.95 CDN