

GOODBYE -- ADIEU -- FAREWELL

Dear friends, artists and art lovers,

Sometimes life brings us to a point when we must realize that big changes have occurred that have to be dealt with. So it is happened for me.

In April I shall reach the ripe old age of 89 and after some health problems, I understood that it was time to say goodbye. I haven't been painting for a while, but have been writing and published 2 books, and shall continue writing. The time has come to leave my beloved house of 57 years, as well as my studio, and move to Tapestry at UBC.

To celebrate this important event in my life, as well as to honour Anne Adams' and my own creation of Artists in our Midst Art Walk, I shall have a final great sale of all my work, as well as of all the artist's materials in my studio, as follows:

ART – all prints, paintings and drawings sold at 60% discount, most of the proceeds donated to Artists in our Midst.

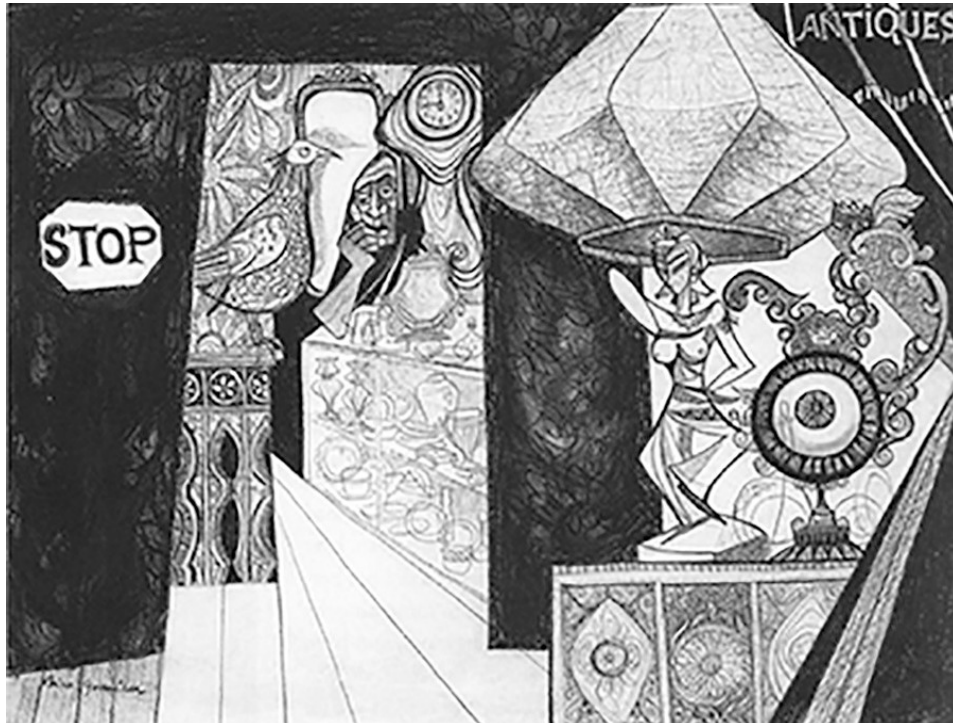

ART SUPPLIES AND FURNITURE – Low prices

Hope to see you all in my studio for the last time!
